Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1951, present this yearbook to the student body to record the events which have taken place during the past school year.

We will try to make this book as complete and interesting as possible.

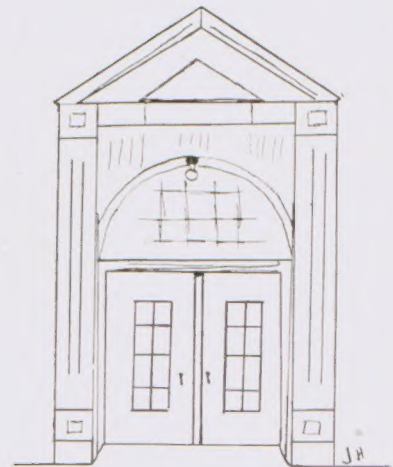

We have chosen this motto "In our laps rocks the destiny of the world," and are trying to live up to this, both now and in the future.

The Alma Mater

Oh, come let us unite in praise,
A song of Alma Mater raise;
We all delight to pass along,
The praise of dear Old Madison:
Years may come and years may go,
The seasons pass, but on we roll:
Lift your voice in word and song,
To sing of dear old Madison.

— James Hunter, Class of '44

Dedication

We take great pleasure in dedicating this annual to Harry Hendershot, our class advisor.

Mr. Hendershot came to Madison at mid-term last year and began a very rigorous teaching schedule. He is noted for his informality and good humor, both in and out of classes.

We wish him good luck and hope he will be at Madison for many years to come.

School Board

The School Board meets every month at the clerk's office to carry on a meeting which pertains to the supplying of the Madison Local Schools with the proper needs — texts, equipment and teachers. They are also trying to build up the Madison Local Schools to adequately take care of all the Madison Local School District pupils.

The Senior Class is grateful for a school board which is trying to help the students of our schools.

CHESTER RAMSEY, Clerk

Avocation: Radio, Television, Hunting and Fishing.

Mr. Ramsey is a former teacher of Madison. He taught chemistry, physics and mathematics. He is now serving as a full-time clerk of the Madison Board of Education. In addition to this he is the supervisor of the buildings and purchasing agent for maintenance equipment.

Mr. Ramsey has been a good friend to all the students of Madison High School. We appreciate the assistance he has given us through this past year.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

We, the Senior Class of '51, take great pride to present Norma Otto the title of Valedictorian for receiving the highest rank in our class. Also receiving honor is Martha Jane Ewing, taking the title of Salutatorian.

We wish to extend our congratulations to these students who have achieved this honor through a lot of hard work. We know they have deserved this honor and wish them the best of luck in the future.

Class History

The very short four years passed at Madison by the Class of "51" were started on September 2, 1947. Time wearing quickly on and things eventually being settled for a group of 87 slightly frightened and lost freshmen, the election was held for class officers. Those who guided us successfully through that year were: William Briggs, President; Dean Smith, Treasurer; Paul Gottfried, Vice-President; Shirley Bell, Secretary; and Mr. Ramsey as our advisor.

The most important event of the year as far as we were concerned was the freshman party April 9, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The year ended with the annual picnic at North Lake Park.

Soon, before we hardly knew what was happening we were again walking the halls of Madison as sophomores.

This year Mr. Ramsey again being our advisor was assisted by our officers: Ed Chelski, President; Raymond Enderle, Vice-President; June Barnhill, Secretary; and Paul Gottfried, Treasurer. The annual sophomore party, held April 1, was a great deal of fun for everyone and ended another wonderful year.

Suddenly after a short three-month vacation we were back at Madison as upper classmen, and feeling quite proud.

We presented the play "Time for Elizabeth" on November 18, and our Junior party March 10.

The Prom which as Juniors we sponsored, was held on May 19, at the Richland Recreation Center, with everyone feeling gay and looking fine.

Our last year at Madison began in "50," with Mr. Hendershot as our advisor and the valuable assistance of our worthy officers: Marty Keipp, President; Roger McBride, Vice-President; Jackie Gordon, Secretary; and Ed Potter, Treasurer.

We held our class party October 28, and all enjoyed the scavenger hunt very much.

Returning from Christmas vacation we had many things to do such as invitations to pick, color of our gowns, which were white for girls and blue for boys, and our flower, the White Rose. Our colors were chosen to be Maroon and Grey.

It finally led to the production of our Senior Play, "Mr. Berry's Etchings" on May 4, followed by the Prom May 18. We all think the Juniors did a splendid job and every one was dressed very nicely. Thanks a lot, Juniors.

Well, as all things must, the year began to end, and our wonderful High School days were nearly over. Baccalaureate Services May 20, and Commencement May 24, at Madison with Reverend Rinehart Wobus as our Speaker.

We, the 59 students of the Graduating Class of "51," are sure that we shall all appreciate more as time goes on the kindness and steadfastness of our teachers and parents and hope to prove it in the future.

Thus, we depart from Madison together with our Motto: "In our laps rocks the destiny of the world" wishing all the future graduates of Madison "Good Luck."

Class Prophecy

Dear Mr. Miller:

As I watch the cars buzzing in and out of traffic below, it reminds me of the graduating class of 1951. First of all, I think of the good times we had. Of course, I admit, we were trying at times. Now I want to tell what these Seniors are doing.

Martha Ewing has an All-Girl's Orchestra. Jo Ann Hawkins is her pianist. Jackie Gordon sends everyone with her chirping. Muriel Beer attracts everyone's eye with her dancing.

John Papcun, now a famous coach, takes his play-boys to Europe every summer. Ed Chelski, the All-American boy, plays for John and has attained much popularity for Papcun's scrubs.

You can see Jean Sargent realized her dreams by the beautiful Drive-In on Lexington Avenue. Since it was a realization of her dreams, it has the appropriate name of "Dreamers' Inn."

Jeanne Stimen and Willis Stevens are a happily married couple. They own a repair garage. Their motto is, "If your car attracts Tillie's, bring it to Willie's and it will have the Billies."

Robert Seith runs an advertising agency located in Hollywood. He does advertising for one of the large corporations.

Bill Hale is engaged in commercial shipping in Portland, Oregon. He accepts many government orders.

Gerald McKown has interests in "Crunchee Wunchees," a breakfast food factory. A recent poll showed this among the top ten favorites.

Charles Mowry recently invested in a summer resort, famous now for its riding horses. Maureen O'Hara and Mary McConnell are the pretty gals who take the guests on tours about the ranch. Believe me, it is really a swell place to go if you want rest.

Donna Plank, Irene Fluke, Marie Kirkpatrick, and Caroline Kanz are the nurses on the staff at Barney Google Hospital. Take my advice, don't go there unless you are as nutty as they are.

Alas! Mr. Miller, we have an outstanding orator from the class of '51. Marty Kepp is noted for the following "I ain't got much to say." This can be heard on CRAZY every night, Monday through Friday at six o'clock.

Miss Kragick has her own Shop of Beauty. Her slogan is "Want to have beautiful skin? Use our mud pack and lose your looks forever." This miracle reforming process is performed by Mary Lou Lorentz, who puts the goo on. Shirley Kovats gives her assistance by giving advice to the victim. Bev Harris cures your aching bones.

Melvin Miller has his office on Wall Street. In order for him to put through big deals, he has quite a few Madisonites helping him.

The most important is Melvin's little helper, Norm Otto. Norman is Mister Miller's legal advisor.

Norma Sowash mixes up Melvin's files for him. However, Norma keeps him straight in life—after she refuses women from seeing him everyday.

Class Prophecy

Donna Plew and Karlene Finley are telephone operators for these stock markets. They give Melvin tips on new deals.

Bill Mottayaw is another fellow-workman. He works outside the doors of directors and get first-hand information on everything.

Ralph Dorner has the largest peach orchard in Georgia. His peaches grow so big and fast that Tom Durig opened a peach-canning factory to take care of Ralph's peaches. Clarence Feeman has his own jet plane and distributes them quickly throughout the country.

Our cheerleaders, Shirley Bell and Shirley Frisch, turned out to be champions—Ping pong, that is. They won the Olympic Championship at London last winter. Their competent business manager is Ruth Casler.

In case, Mr. Miller, you should wish to visit an enchanting place, consult Betty McKinley. She runs a Traveling Bureau in Norwalk. She will tell you exactly where to go.

Hager Arnett bought the Bromfield Farm to carry on experiments. He has become famous along these lines. James Albro is superintendent of the Dairy barn.

Bill Brown owns a Hot-Rod track. Each year they hold the National Hot-Rod races on it. Tom Kudika serves as Mister Brown's big-time bookie. Ronald Kulka scares the drivers before they go out on the track; therefore Virgil Riggensbach wins all the races. In other words, these guys are just plain swindlers.

Don Noble has formed a nationally known band. His soloists are Bill Briggs, Ed Potter and Paul Gottfried.

Kenneth Woerth's model agency does a booming business. His models are said to be the prettiest in the world.

Roger McBride has become a successful engineer and is completing the Pan-American Highway in Guatamala. Some of his right-hand men are Dick Fox and Pete Schulties.

Marlin Hess has painted portraits of many famous people both here and abroad. He has his office in a cozy little cabin along the New England seashore.

Dick Dillon is all wrapped up in his "Out of the World" gas station. If your car is in bad condition, by all means, don't take it to Dillon's or you'll need a magician.

Harold Hulit owns a large farm which many people visit each year to see his great exhibition of show cattle.

Last, but not least, Ray Enderle and his Onions have a Night Club "The Green Champagne" famous from coast to coast. Gene Ayers and John Snyder provide a riot of laughs. Larry Lynn occupies the look-out post and is known as Look Out Larry. Gloria Belt helps Ray out by selecting shows from Hollywood for his famous floor-show.

As you can see this class has put its talents to some use, maybe in some cases good, others not exactly up to par. However, I think that they have done quite well for themselves.

Yours forever,

Gloria Belt

Junior Class History

On September 7, 1948, the junior class of this year started their high school life at Madison. At the first meeting, the class chose William Fletcher as President, Ward Patterson as Vice President, George Stevens as Secretary, and Shirley Conroy as Treasurer to lead the class. Mrs. Kissel served as class advisor. The Freshman party was held on April 29.

As sophomores, the class elected George Stevens, President; Leland Strang, Vice President; John Troupe, Secretary; Dean Stoffer, Treasurer. Mrs. Kissel was class advisor again. The annual party proved to be a success.

Now in 1950, they are the proud juniors of Madison. This year the election of officers was exciting, especially for the position of President. There was a battle of the sexes with the girls winning. Ruth Armstrong was elected President; Tom Brittain, Vice President; Viola Betz, Secretary; Jerry Tallentire, Treasurer. Mrs. Kissel will guide the juniors through this important year.

The Junior Play, "Me and My Shadow," held on December 8, was enjoyed by everyone.

The annual party proved to be a lot of fun.

The outstanding date of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom.

The class of "51" wishes the senior class of next year lots of luck in their last year at dear old Madison.

Sophomore Class History

After going to the wrong classes a few times and learning things the hard way, the freshmen became accustomed to high school life.

After everyone became better acquainted, the first meeting was held. George Peterson filled the position of President; Grant Milliron, Vice President; Ann Durig, Secretary; Don Norris, Treasurer. Mr. Dowler was appointed advisor to lead the group.

On April 21 the freshmen held their party. From the rumors, the party was a success.

The next year a veteran class of sophomores returned to Madison. This year Grant Milliron was elected President. Don Wilson, Beatrice Bodi, and Howard Potter were elected to fill the positions of Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, respectively. Mr. Dowler was appointed class advisor.

The annual class party provided everyone with a good time.

The senior class wishes the sophomores all the luck in their two years at Madison.

Freshmen Class History

On September 5, 1950, the new freshmen class walked slowly into the halls of Madison High School. The excited throng looked at the upper-classmen and at the school with awe, wondering what high school would be like.

The bell rang, and everyone gathered in the auditorium. The teachers were introduced and the rules and regulations of the school were given.

Next they went to their home room and they were given their schedules. Soon they were busy making friends.

On October 6 the freshmen met to elect officers. Ralph Cutter was elected by a majority of votes to lead the class for the year. Paul Kovats ranked next as Vice President. Ronald Pickett was elected to the job of Secretary and Ruth Ann Steward collected the dues. Mr. Wendelmoot was appointed class advisor.

The annual freshman party was a gala affair.

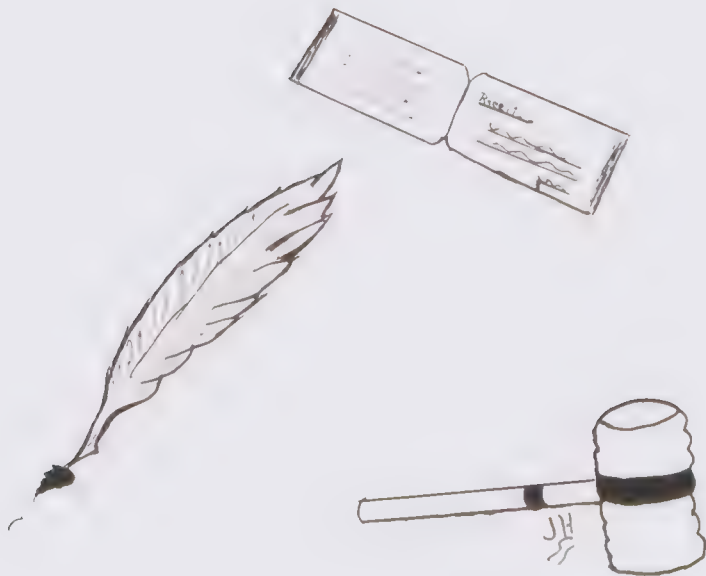

The graduating class of 1951 wishes the best of luck to the freshmen in their future years at Madison.

The "Hi-Spots," our high school newspaper, published by the students of Madison High School, is circulated once each month. It tells the pupils all the news about sports, school activities and interesting, as well as amusing events.

This paper was founded in the year of 1935 by the Junior Class of the same year.

The staff this year has done a very fine job and everyone enjoyed reading the news. Congratulations to all who have made our "Hi-Spots" a success.

The Madison Thespians, during its six years of existence, has maintained its position as one of the most popular organizations in the high school. Membership in this organization is open to students who are outstanding in acting. The student is tried out before a student committee of old members and by this means their membership into the organization is approved.

Thespian activities includes student directed one-act plays, research in the history of the theatre, guest speakers, instructions in makeup, the presentation of different types of plays, the study of acting and directing, and experimental work with the ring theatre.

The Thespians present an annual three-act play to the public. Participation in the plays and in the regular meetings broadens the members' knowledge of acting and of the theatre. One of the highlights of the Thespian year is a trip to Cleveland or Columbus to attend a professional stage play.

The very capable leadership of Miss Eileen Stout, the intense interest of the talented young actors, and the fine co-operation of the Madison student body promises to keep this organization active.

Visual Education

Each year this department becomes more and more important to the school. The club is under the helpful guidance of the advisor, Mr. Hendershot. The different duties of the members are to set up and operate the projector, operate the turntable, and set up chairs for programs in the auditorium.

Classroom films are secured from the State Department of Education. These films cover all subjects and are furnished free of charge. During the year, features are shown at noon. Some of these were "Last of the Mohicans," "One Million B.C.," and "Texas."

At the end of the year each senior boy is presented with a gold pin.

We wish the club and Mr. Hendershot much success in the years to come and know that they will carry on the good work.

Librarians

Seated: Miss Stout.

The librarians this year have been very friendly and have graciously helped us when we needed them.

They have done a very good job in helping us select books, find reference material, and in keeping the library in order. They also help to keep the files in order, collect fines on over-due books, and check the students in and out of the library.

Miss Stout, who acts as head librarian, has obtained late books that will be interesting and enjoyable to the students.

We wish to extend our thanks to the librarians who so willingly assisted us.

Second row: Miss Stout, Mary Lou Lorentz, Connie Koogle, Cynthia Laubscher, Karlene Finley, Carol Farber, Sara Shellhaas, Jeanne Stimen, Norma Sowash, Viola Betz, Barbara Gleisinger, Shurlene Scheurer, Edna Schrack.

The Speech Club is organized for a number of reasons. It promotes a feeling of friendliness among the members of the class which helps to break down shyness. This brings about greater ease in speaking. The club gives members an opportunity to appear before an audience, to display and develop any talents they might have, either hidden or recognized. Through this participation members attain a higher degree of poise and self confidence.

Fifteen years ago the Latin students at Madison High School saw the need for an organization to make the study of Latin more interesting and worthwhile. The Latin Club was created to promote a better understanding of Roman life and customs.

The Latin Club pin is a much-desired award which is given to members on a point basis. Points are acquired by attendance at meetings, prompt payment of dues, participation in programs, and by serving as an officer. A pin calls for 750 of these points.

A banquet is held every two years, and is eagerly awaited by everyone. The original Roman style prevails, togas for the masters and tunics for the slaves.

We wish the Latin Club success in the years to come.

Monthly meetings are held throughout the year. The girls, from each of the four classes are responsible for one meeting a year. Friendly rivalry always exists and this helps to make more interesting programs. Outside speakers come in from time to time to give talks and demonstrations on a wide variety of subjects.

Home Economics is concerned with so many subjects of importance that it should be a required course for all girls. Home-making is a profession in this modern age—not just something that falls to the lot of a house-wife.

Spanish Club

Seated: Miss Wiseman, Advisor; Tom Brittain.

Standing: Mary McConnell, Maureen O'Hara, Martha Jane Ewing, Ralph Dorner, Marty Keipp.

This year the Spanish Club is composed of the six students in the Spanish class.

The purpose of this organization is to learn the customs of the South American countries through films, records and newspapers.

The club has a meeting once a month which included a Christmas party given by Miss Wiseman, the advisor, in her home for the present students in the club and graduates from the past year.

Each of the members hold the following offices: President, Thomas Brittain; Vice President, Mary Elizabeth McConnell; Secretary, Martha Jane Ewing; Treasurer, Maureen O'Hara; Sergeant at Arms, Martin Keipp; Critic, Ralph Dorner.

The Y-Teens, a branch of the Y.W.C.A., was organized in Madison a few years ago to promote a feeling of fellowship and Christianity as well as a means of recreation for its members.

The Y-Teens is now one of the most active organizations of Madison High School. It has an enrollment of over one-hundred members.

Miss Marion Johnson was the director of the Y-Teens until late in December. Miss Louise Gerwin took the position as advisor after Miss Johnson resigned.

Miss Bonnie Mottayaw serves as assistant advisor. Bonnie is a graduate of Madison and was president of the Y-Teens last year.

A "get-acquainted" party was held at the beginning of the year to help the new freshmen get acquainted with the old members.

Freshman initiation was held in October. The frosh were required to go through various tortures on Main Street and in Central Park. A Slumber Party followed the initiation.

The Y-Teens sponsored the annual Christmas Assembly with various musical selections which proved to be very successful.

Each year the Y.W.C.A. sends two representatives from each club to take part in the annual Y-Teen conference. This conference is usually held at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. The purpose of it is to help the officers of the clubs to be better leaders. The president and secretary usually get to go. It's a wonderful experience, for you meet girls from all parts of Ohio. Cynthia Laubscher and Jackie Gordon were Madison's representatives last year.

The Y.W.C.A. is a wonderful organization. Any girl can join the club if they like and they are more than welcome.

This year the Musical Arts Club became an active organization which met once a month. The programs included the study of several different forms of music illustrated with recordings belonging to the members.

At the Christmas meeting the oratorio was studied by recordings of Handel's "The Messiah."

In the spring the club read the story of an opera and then went to Cleveland to attend a performance of it.

During the football season the group sponsored a successful drive for students to learn Madison's "Alma Mater."

To become a member of the Musical Arts Club, a student must earn at least 30 points by participating in the various musical organizations.

The Class of '51 hopes that this organization will continue to grow as it did this year.

This year's marching band was bigger and better than ever. The clever and colorful half-time shows which highlighted every game showed the careful planning and the fine co-operation which made them possible.

Miss Whitworth, aided by Muriel Beer, head majorette, Jackie Gordon, assistant, and Donald Noble, student director, spent much of her time working out new and better formations. The displays were further enhanced by the use of the colored lights on the hats of the bandmen.

Besides marching at all the games, the band participated in the Hallowe'en Parade.

The high-stepping majorettes of Madison led by Muriel Beer are hard to beat in their precision and feats of skill and daring. Their part in the half-time shows was always awaited with a thrill of anticipation.

The new lighted batons and green and white uniforms also added to their performances.

We are proud of our majorettes who contributed so much toward the success of the marching band.

Helping to present the Christmas assembly and the annual Spring musical kept the mixed choir very busy this year. The co-operation of the members and the excellent directorship of their leader, Miss Whitworth, made these programs a success which will be long remembered.

This organization enjoyed working together and it is hoped that next year's choir will have as much and even more success than that of this year.

Good luck to you from the Class of '51.

The only requirements for membership, as stated by Miss Whitworth, are: the girl must be able to sing and must like to sing. The members also have fun while they work. All of the senior members are sorry that this has to be their last year as a T.C.C.'er.

Good luck to this new organization in the years to come .

"Mr. Barry's Etchings"

The seniors presented "MR. BARRY'S ETCHINGS," a three-act comedy which brought suspense and thrills to its audience. The play, written by Walter Bullock and Daniel Archer, was first presented on Broadway in 1950.

The drama is set in Mr. Barry's studio. This is the left of what was formerly the stables of the Barry estate. It has been remodeled as a comfortable, masculine retreat by Mr. Barry.

Mr. Barry, a genius, inventor, and artist, not only paints signs but prints, as a hobby, fifty-dollar bills which he keeps locked in a chest. He is displeased with the face on the bill and at the time he is bored with etching cathedrals. Mrs. Taylor, his sister, discovers the bills while hunting for posters which Barry had painted. Mr. Barry does not intend the bills to circulate. However, the town is corrupt politically so he puts them into circulation to back the campaign of an honest mayor. He also "contributes generously" to various civic organizations—the hospital, church, and veterans' club. He antagonizes the undertaker, the wealthiest man in town, who is responsible for the corrupt politicians.

To complicate matters further, the world's greatest counterfeiter, Fifty Ferris, a vivacious hard-boiled blond, comes to Stanwich posing as a reporter. Her accomplice, Sawbuck Sam, acts as her photographer. They hope to find the genius who is printing the phoney fifties and force him to join their ring. Bud unwittingly tells them of Barry's bills.

A T-man on the case, Tom Crosby, traces the phoney fifty-dollar bills to Stanwich. His secretary, Daisy, stupid but attractive, helps him track down the criminals and make the arrest.

Romance, as well as fifty-dollar bills, circulates. Evelyn Taylor falls in love with the T-man, leaving Marvin Pritchard, her fiance, out in the cold and quite upset.

Carrie Stanwich adds to the comedy by keeping the audience informed on the general happenings of the town.

Judson is exposed as the counterfeit artist and faces imprisonment for his crime. The play ends on a note of optimism as he signs a movie contract to release the story of his life. His sentence may be suspended if he redeems the counterfeit bills.

The play moves rapidly, the dialogue is witty, and there is excellent characterization.

The senior class wishes to thank Miss Stout for her help in making this play a success.

"Me and My Shadow"

"Me and My Shadow," a three-act comedy, by J. Vincent Barrett was chosen for the Junior Class Play.

The scene takes place in a fairly well-to-do home. Roy Harrington (Dean Stoffer) is a young attorney whose mother-in-law, Mrs. King (Shirley Beer) has never exactly approved of his marriage to her daughter, Arleen (Norma Bishop). Arleen is taking a first-aid course and she practices on anyone who complains. She went to a lecture on first-aid. Since she doesn't trust her husband alone, she persuades Dr. Bruce Douglas (Richard Groff), a young and struggling doctor, to stay with him.

During the week-end, while Arleen is absent, Roy gets involved with an oriental girl (Ruth Hagerman). Roy's mother-in-law decides to visit them and finds the oriental. This creates quite a lot of excitement. The situation is bad enough, but Susan, the Harrington's maid (Carolyn McElhaney), can't keep a secret and causes more trouble. To make the situation even worse, the town gossip, Georgia (Janice McMullen), drops in unexpectedly.

The great Sabu (John Troupe) unsuccessfully attempts to kill the oriental. In another attempt to kill he mistakes Mrs. King for the oriental girl and kidnaps her.

Mrs. Harrington returns home to find the oriental girl there and her mother gone.

The play continues with the return of Mrs. King and the capture of Sabu by the county sheriff, Hickson (Leland Strang).

Dr. Bruce Douglas saves the life of the oriental girl and becomes her master and she, his slave.

"Goodbye, My Fancy"

GOODBYE, MY FANCY is a grand comedy in three acts with sparkle and zing, written by Fay Kanin.

It is commencement weekend at Good Hope College for Women in Good Hope, Massachusetts. A liberal congresswoman, Agatha Reed (Muriel Beer), a former student of Hope College, is returning to be awarded an honorary degree. She is to occupy her old room at Hope Hall, now being occupied by Ginny Merrill (Kay Jesson), an intelligent and sensitive girl of nineteen and Mary Nell (Ruth Casler), a brainless but pretty young lady. They are having quite a time cleaning the room and are being assisted by Clarisse (Pat Schell) and Amelia (Janet Lutz), two roommates from across the hall.

Miss Shackelford (Ruth Hagerman), the Alumnae Secretary, adds to the confusion with her overwhelming air of authority in getting things ready for the "Honorable." The presence of the janitors (Larry Lynn and Dick Dillon) and the telephone man (Gene Ayers) does not help the situation any. Susan (Margie McBride) the switchboard operator, is having a lot of fun taking calls for the great lady.

Miss Reed's secretary, Grace Woods (Cindy Laubscher), better known around Washington circles as "Woody," considers the whole affair utter nonsense and is very disgusted with everything.

A former roommate of Miss Reed, Ellen (Connie Koogler) wishing to see her before the others, hurries over to talk about old times. During this chat we find that Agatha was expelled from college. She was caught climbing in her window after hours. (She ran away for she did not wish to expose the man she was with, because she was afraid of ruining his career). This man happens to be James Merrill (Dean Stoffer) now president of the college and Ginny Merrill's father.

An elaborate welcome is planned for Miss Reed. Among the "welcoming committee" were Miss Birdeshaw (Gloria Belt), a shy and bashful teacher, and Dr. Pitt (Melvin Miller), the physics professor. Carol (Shirley Conroy) chosen to represent the "Activities of the College for the Weekend" is Miss Reed's "Honor Guard." Representing Physical Education is Jo Winters (Marylu Warner) and Clarisse, representing the Dramatics Club.

A documentary movie which Agatha brings with her to be shown to the fresh young graduates, is considered harsh and improper by Claude Griswold (John Papacum), a college trustee. The conflict exposes the president as a spineless and irresolute figure instead of the upstanding and outspoken professor with whom Miss Reed thought she had been in love for so many years. She realizes they are no longer the same people they were twenty years ago and refuses his proposal. The disenchantment drives her into the arms of Mat Cole (Bill Briggs), a war correspondent who, as a LIFE photographer, has come to cover the event.

Miss Eileen Stout skillfully directed the play, GOODBYE, MY FANCY.

Sports

Coach McGee

This fall, Madison added a new member to its faculty to do a task which required hard work and determination. Roger McGee was the man who took this task and did it well.

Mr. McGee began his football career at Rittman High School, where he played end for three years. After graduation, he enrolled in Otterbein College and was drafted in the U.S. Army during his freshman year. He served our country for three years and won three battlestars in the European theater of operation.

Roger then returned to Otterbein to continue with his education. There he participated in football, basketball and baseball, being outstanding in each. The Otterbein football team, with his services, won the Ohio Conference Championship in 1946.

Mr. McGee began his coaching career at Holland, Ohio as head basketball coach and assistant football coach, after receiving his B.S. degree at Otterbein. While at Holland the football teams were undefeated in 18 straight games and the basketball teams won 24 games and lost 16. From his successful coaching job at Holland High School, Mr. McGee came to Madison.

We are indeed fortunate in having such a capable and well liked man as Roger McGee as head football and assistant basketball coach at Madison. Mr. McGee did a fine job of coaching his team to a successful season this year against the toughest opposition the Rams have ever faced in football. We wish Coach McGee many more successful years at Madison or wherever he might be coaching.

Senior Varsity Players

CHARLES MOWRY—Guard. Charles earned his first varsity letter this year. He was an aggressive defensive lineman who didn't like to give ground. Charles was hampered by a nose injury early in the season. He played his best game against Dover. We will miss his fine playing next year.

BILL BRIGGS—Tackle. Bill was the best blocking lineman on the team this year. He showed great improvement over last year which proved that he had a desire to make good. If our team can come up with a boy like Bill next year, we will still make big holes in the opposing teams' lines.

MARTY KEIPP—End. Co-captain Marty was elected "most valuable lineman" by the Madison football fans. He was a good all-around team man. The tougher they were the better he liked it, playing his best games against Ashland, Dover and Wooster. It will take a good man to fill Marty's shoes next year.

JOHN PAPCUN—Halfback. John was the most improved player on the team this year. Because of his speed, he was a constant threat to the opposing teams. Probably John's best game was the Dover game in which he threw a touchdown pass and made several long runs.

RAY ENDERLE—Halfback. Ray was one of the five returning lettermen this year. Ray suffered a broken wrist in the Canton South game and was out the rest of the season. It hurt the team considerably when his services were lost. His fight and determination made him the good blocker that he was.

DICK FOX—Tackle. Dick was the anchor man of our defensive line. He had a good hard charge and stopped many plays before they got started. Dick did our kicking off this year. Dick improved throughout the year, playing his best in the Bucyrus and Wooster games.

LARRY LYNN—Center. Larry won his first varsity monogram this year. It was a tough job converting from "T" to single-wing center, but Larry did it. Although Larry lacked size, he was always in there fighting. We could use his experience on next year's team.

ROGER MCBRIDE—Quarterback. Roger was one of our returning lettermen and we wish he was returning again next year. Nobody on the team had any more desire and determination than he did. "Mac" threw the key blocks on many of our good plays that netted us a lot of yards this year.

ED CHELSKI—Fullback, Co-Captain. Ed was elected "most valuable player" this year by the team. He made honorable mention on all of the "All Ohio" teams. He scored one-hundred and five points and threw four touchdown passes. Ed was a good defensive man, a reliable blocker, an outstanding runner, a good passer and a fine kicker.

Varsity Football

BILL FLETCHER— Junior— Tackle

Bill played on offense most of the time this year. He was a good competitor and had plenty of team spirit. We hope that Bill will show the same kind of spirit next year.

HAROLD STANLEY— Junior— Defensive Back

Harold did not see much action this year because of a broken ankle at mid-season. He was a good defensive linebacker. Next year he will probably be seen both on defense and offense.

WARD PATTERSON— Junior— Defensive End

Ward proved his ability in the Canton South game. He played his defensive end position from then through the remainder of the season. If Ward continues to improve he will be a rugged end for us in '51.

ALLEN HEUSS— Junior— Tackle

Allen won his first varsity letter this year. He showed tremendous improvement as the season advanced. He should be a standout in our line next year.

MEREDITH SMITH— Junior— Guard

Smitty was used both on defense and offense this year. He likes the game of football. In his own words— "the tougher they are, the better I like 'em." You can expect Smitty to make his share of the tackles next year.

KENNETH NEWLON— Junior— End

Kenny steadily improved his playing as the season progressed. In the Bellville game he scored on a fifty-yard run. We hope Kenny will do this more often in his remaining year at Madison.

BOB SPRAGUE— Junior— Guard

Bob was a good blocker in the line and in the latter part of the season an outstanding defensive linebacker. His best games were played against Ashland and Wooster. He should help our team a lot next year.

GRANT MILLIRON— Sophomore— Halfback

Grand made some very nice runs in the Loudonville and Bucyrus games this year. From his defensive halfback position he made many tackles on the line of scrimmage. Grant has two more years to play football for Madison.

DON WILSON— Sophomore— Fullback

Don was a good pass defender and a good passer. In the Bellville game his passing performance was outstanding. We hope to see a lot of his fine playing the next two years.

DON NORRIS— Sophomore— Defensive Back

Don did a good job for us during his first year on the varsity. His outstanding game was the Loudonville game. He has two more years to render his services to the Madison Rams.

GEORGE REECE— Sophomore— Defensive Back

Although this was George's first year at Madison he helped the team considerably. He played the entire game against Dover. Next year we expect to see George playing in all of the games.

Managers: BOB REED, SAM METZGER and DAVID WIELAND

These boys did a lot of hard work and received little credit. They were well-liked by the players and the coaches. We hope they will be our managers next year.

Booster Club

The Madison Booster Club was organized in 1933 to help support elementary and high school athletics and the various other high school activities.

The Booster Club not only provides funds to support the various organizations, but it also provides incentive to join these organizations. The Club awards several football trophies, and holds an annual football banquet. For the past several years they have also been holding an All-Activities banquet.

At the end of each school year the Booster Club sponsors a lawn fete. This is held on the school football field and is highlighted by the crowning of the May King and Queen. Most of the club's operating expenses are derived from this event. They also earn some money by running the concession stands at home football games.

We wish to thank the Booster Club for the help they have given us and we hope they will keep up the good work in years to come.

Officers: President, Harry Hall; Vice President, Henry Enderle; Secretary, Earl Briggs; Treasurer, Walter Kelley

Assistant Coach Booth

Mr. Booth took his first coaching job as the reserve football mentor at Madison high this year. Wilbur Booth received his education at New London High School. There he participated in football and track, winning two letters in each sport. While playing football at New London, he alternated between the guard and center positions.

Mr. Booth then served in the U.S. Navy for fifteen months. He resumed his education at Ashland College after returning from the service. At Ashland College he majored in physical education, earning three monograms in football and two in track. On the track team, Wilbur placed high in several events in state competition. After graduation, he came to Madison.

He taught the freshman and sophomore football players the fundamentals of the game and set them on the right road to be good athletes. This is one of the necessities in the making of winning teams for the future years. Mr. Booth was well liked by the boys he coached and by the student body.

The "Class of '51" wishes Mr. Booth the best in success as he continues with his coaching career.

Football Reserves

Second row: Charles McClead, Jack Freeman, David Roberts, Bill Steel, Eugene Logan, James Troupe, Eldon Brumenschenkel, Don Sheldon.

The primary function of a reserve team is to learn the fundamentals of the game. This year under the supervision of the new reserve coach, Wilbur Booth, the reserves learned the hard hitting, good clean football that is typical of Madison teams.

The team this year was made up entirely of freshmen and sophomores. Most of the boys showed tremendous improvement as the season progressed. Many of these boys will be playing varsity football next year and a great deal will be expected from them.

Coach Dowler

This is Coach Blaine Dowler's third year at Madison. He is head coach in basketball and baseball, and assistant in football. After serving in the Army from 1943 to 1946, he taught two years at Lodi, where he was head football, baseball, and basketball coach. While in the Army he played baseball and basketball.

Mr. Dowler attended Toledo Waite High School, where he played basketball, and Defiance College where he played basketball and football. He is working on his Master's Degree at Western Reserve during the summers.

The class of "51" feel that Madison High School is very fortunate in having such a capable coach to lead its teams and wish him many successful years at Madison.

Varsity Basketball

TOM KUDIKA— Forward

Tom is one of the five seniors on the squad. This is his second year on the varsity. He is a cool-headed ballhandler and is a good shot from anywhere on the floor. Next year's team will miss him.

BILL MOTTAYAW— Forward

This is Bill's second year on the varsity. He is the most improved player on the squad, earning his first letter this year. Bill also got his share of rebounds. He is a senior.

ED CHELSKI— Guard

Ed was the scoring punch of the team. His long one-hand shots were very accurate. Opponents found it difficult to keep Ed from scoring. His field goal in the last few seconds of the Upper Sandusky game meant the difference between victory and defeat. Ed is a senior.

MARTY KEIPP— Center

Marty took over the pivot position early in the season. He got most of his points under the basket. He was flashy and played a good defensive game. The Rams will miss him next year, as he is a senior.

JOHN PAPCUN— Guard

This is John's second year on the varsity. John is very fast and can jump exceptionally high for his height. He is a good ball handler and likes to drive in for lay-ups. He is also a senior.

LELAND STRANG— Guard

This is Whitey's second year on the Varsity. Although he is small, he makes up for this in his speed, good ball handling, and sharp-shooting. Being a Junior, he should be a refined ball player next year.

DON WILSON— Forward

This is "Duck's" second year as a letterman. He is very accurate on two hand shots from the side. "Duck" possessed a variation of shots. He even made one lying on his back in the Crestline game, which the Rams won— 58-56. He is a sophomore.

JERRY TALLENTIRE— Forward

Jerry is the tallest man on the squad and the top rebounder. He is a fine ball handler and an outstanding defensive man. He likes to drive in for lay-ups. Jerry is a Junior and this is his second year on the Varsity.

JAKE RADIO— Guard.

This is Jake's first year on the Varsity. He displayed some fine ball handling and stood out as a defensive player. Jake is a good long shot and will be back to aid next year's team. He is a Junior.

WARD PATTERSON— Forward

This is Ward's first year on the Varsity. He is very good on one-hand shots from the side. He liked to get in when the going was rough. He plays a good defensive game and will be back next year. Ward is a Junior.

DEAN STOFFER— Forward

Dean has improved very much this season. This is his second year on the Varsity. He is very good on hook shots. He will also be back to spark next year's team. Dean is a Junior.

This was Coach Blaine Dowler's second baseball team at Madison which had a fair season, winning 6 and losing 8. We would like to wish Mr. Dowler the best of luck in years to come.

Madison scored 72 runs to the opponents 99. The team also totaled 42 stolen bases for an average of 3 per game.

Perhaps the most spirited game of the season was the first game with Mansfield. Although losing 2 to 1 the Rams made the Tygers work for each run.

Varsity Baseball

Bill Remy— .368-Bill played second base for the Rams. He liked to tag runners trying to steal second. He also showed his ability to run bases, scoring 11 in all. Bill graduated last May.

Russ Glenn— .318-Russ played the outfield. He was a real asset to the team, scoring 7 runs during the season. The boys respected Russ for his ability to hit long drives. He was a senior.

Norm Hughes— .266-Norm, playing third base, was perhaps the most consistent player on the squad. He led in runs scored, registering 12, for the season. Norm was also a fine defensive player. We will miss him this year.

Marty Keipp— .250-Marty played first base. He let very few grounders get by him. Although his glove resembled a mop, he assisted with many put-outs. Marty will be back this year.

Dick Fox— .193-Dick played the outfield and also pitched. Although his batting average wasn't high, he was always trying to do his best. We expect Dick to do us a lot of good during the "50-31" season.

Jerry Tallentire— .190-Jerry played the outfield and also did some pitching. In pitching, he used his 6' 4" frame to a good advantage in fooling the opposition. We are glad he will be back this season.

The "M" Association was organized to promote good sportsmanship and a better interest in athletics at Madison. Many of the social events at Madison are sponsored by the "M" Association.

Coach McGee and Coach Dowler are the able advisors and model members.

Girls' Athletic Association

MISS CURL
Physical Education Instructor

Miss Curl came to Madison at the beginning of the 1950-51 school year. She immediately stepped in and performed the many G.A.A. duties with a very capable hand. Throughout the entire year Miss Curl has shown ability in the sports she conducts and has given an excellent example of good sportsmanship.

The Class of 1951 extends to Miss Curl its heartiest congratulations for the fine way in which she handled the many jobs in G.A.A. and in her teaching duties. Also, the Class wishes Miss Curl many more successful years at Madison.

G. A. A. Board

Second row: Beatrice Bodi, Nancy Chelski, Donna Pearson, and Miss Curl, the advisor.

Every club needs officers and because the Girls' Athletic Association is so large and active there are nine officers. They include a president (senior), a vice-president (senior), a secretary (junior), and a treasurer (junior). In addition there is a senior representative, a junior representative, and three sophomore managers.

This board, as it is called, serves as the body that creates money raising projects and supervises their execution. It also has charge of the girls' locker room, the annual club initiation, and the May Crowning.

Two of the most important activities of each year are the Homecoming Crowning and Dance and the Sweetheart Swing. The duties looked after by the board include details pertaining to the tickets, the orchestra, publicity, food, decorations, and cleaning up.

The board's work is compensated by the payment of 100 G.A.A. points to each member.

The officers of the G.A.A. this year have done a fine job in performing their duties. The Class of '51 extends congratulations to the board for its work.

Cheerleaders

"For the best in zest, Madison passes the test!"

Look at the cheerleaders and you'll understand why Madison is well-known for spirit and good sportsmanship.

The girls are filled with zip and cheer. Dressed in their bright green and white uniforms, they lead the student body in cheers of thunderous inspiration for the team.

Shirley and Shirley have been cheerleaders for three years. They have worked hard and have successfully added new versions to old, worn-out cheers and created entirely new peppy ones. The Shirleys can always be depended upon for loyal support for their team.

Helping the two seniors with the duties of cheerleading are Janice McMullen (Junior) and Donna Pearson (Sophomore). On the capable shoulders of these two girls rests the responsibility of future cheering sections of Madison.

The Class of "51" wishes to compliment the cheerleaders for their reliability and inspiring hard work in boosting the teams' morale.

Good luck to you and to all future Madison cheerleaders.

Homecoming Queen and Attendants

Center: Queen Shirley Bell.

Clockwise: Ruth Casler, Muriel Beer, Jackie Gordon, and Shirley Kovats,

A convertible slowly proceeds down the sidelines of the football field. A resounding cheer is heard and every one gazes approvingly upon the occupants of the automobile.

The lovely lady attired in white is the Madison Homecoming Queen, Miss Shirley Bell. Queen Shirley is surrounded by four charming attendants: Jacqueline Gordon, Muriel Beer, Shirley Kovats, and Ruth Casler. Each of these ladies-in-waiting is appropriately dressed in green.

The court, after entering a heart formed by the Madison Band, is serenaded by musical selections. The traditional crowning is then begun.

Shirley is graciously crowned by the retiring Homecoming Queen, Miss Mary Jo Hunter. Miss Annabelle Kragick, vice-president of G.A.A., then presents the new Queen with a large, beautiful bouquet of white mums. A greeting is extended to the teams, alumni, and fans of Dover and Madison; after this Queen Shirley presents the captains of both teams with good luck tokens and a royal kiss.

The pretty Homecoming Quintet was elected from the senior class by the student body. All who attended the game agreed that the Royal Court was well chosen for grace, poise, and loyalty.

May Queen and King

Annabelle Kragick and Raymond Enderle

A respectful silence and the procession begins. Sixteen girls in sparkling pastel formals take their places to pay homage to the Madison May Royalty. Eight more lovelies attired in flowing gowns and each carrying roses follow graciously to the throne.

All hail! The pretty May Queen approaches escorted by the handsome King. They are followed by the retiring May King and Queen.

With pomp and ceremony the Royal Court is seated on a large, white-covered throne. The crowning follows with the retiring Queen, Dorothy Sabo, bequeathing her crown to Annabelle and the retiring King, Russell Glenn, surrendering his crown to Ray.

King Ray and Queen Annabelle were elected by the student body. Two girls representing each class served as the Royal Court. These members were: Shirley Brightbill and Audrey Smith, Freshmen; Kay Jesson and Beverly Morr, Sophomores; Shirley Bell and Mary McConnell, Juniors; and Ann Dyson and Tommie Ciraulo, Seniors.

Ramette Queen

Talented Muriel Beer was chosen as the Ramette Queen of '51. Muriel's athletic ability, good humor, showmanship, and a fine sense of sportsmanship won this honor for her. We, the Class of '51, feel very proud to be able to claim her as a member of our class.

To be eligible to be elected Ramette Queen, a girl must participate in all the sports activities. As a reward for her showing Muriel received a white athletic sweater. Because she had more G.A.A. points than any other senior girl, she was also presented with the traditional Ram's Head.

Honor Volleyball Team

Second row: Annabelle Kragick.

Third row: Shirley Frisch, Ruth Casler, and Muriel Beer.

Fourth row: Mary McConnell, Martha Jane Ewing, and Jean Stimen.

This year ten senior girls won places on the Madison Girls' Honor Volleyball squad. Five of these girls received places on the first honor team while the other five earned places on the second honor team. Underclassmen constituted the remaining vacant places on each team.

Miss Curl, physical education instructor, chose the members on the basis of co-operation, good sportsmanship, and for the greatest part-ability.

The teams were unable to play against Mansfield Senior High this year because Senior High had finished its quota of games before Madison's squad was chosen.

The Class of "51" sincerely hopes that next year Madison will resume playing Senior High and that Madison will cop a high number of victories.

Congratulations to the members of the 1951 Madison Honor Volleyball Teams.
